CORPORATE BYLAWS

Article I NAME

The name of this Corporation as provided in the Articles of Incorporation shall be the FLORIDA ASSOCIATION OF TEACHER EDUCATORS, INC., FATE, a not-for-profit organization functioning as a state unit of the Association of Teacher Educators, ATE.

Article II PURPOSES

The Corporation shall be organized exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 170(c) (2) (3), 2055(a) (2), and 2522(a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation shall be empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not-for-profit corporations, including, but not limited thereon, to receive gifts, devises, bequests and contributions in any form, and to use, apply, invest and reinvest the principal for income there from or distribute the same for the above purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:

- A. By an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of such Code, and/or
- B. By an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2), or 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

The purposes of FATE shall be to:

- A. Provide an organized Florida state unit of the Association of Teacher Educators.
- B. Promote quality teacher education programs in the state of Florida.
- C. Provide opportunities for individual professional growth for all persons involved in the education community, both school and university-based.
- D. Work to improve early childhood, elementary, secondary and higher education in Florida.
- E. Contribute to the knowledge base in teacher education.
- F. Stimulate and support research, investigation, and experimentation within the various fields associated with teacher education.
- G. Collaborate with the State Education Department and with other professional agencies and organizations for continuous support and reappraisal of effective professional standards for the teaching profession in Florida.

Article III FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on October 1 and end on September 30, unless changed by the Board of Directors, hereafter referred to as the Board

Article IV MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Qualifications Membership shall be open to all persons over 18 years of age who are interested in the mission and purposes of this Corporation as stated in the Articles of Incorporation and in these Bylaws. FATE encourages all persons professionally involved and/or interested in some facet of teacher education, either school or university-based, to become active members of the Corporation. FATE adheres to the principles of non-discrimination, access, and equal opportunity with regard to membership in its organization.

Section 2. Admission & Dues Individuals shall be admitted to membership upon payment of the dues according to their class of membership. The dues for membership shall be determined by the FATE Board of Directors. A member shall continue as a member as long as qualifications are met and prescribed dues are paid. A qualified individual who joins in the period three months or less prior to the end of the membership year (July, August or September) will be granted membership at half the normal rate.

Section 3. Membership Year The membership year of FATE shall coincide with the fiscal year of the organization, October 1 to September 30, (Article III) and be on a twelve month basis.

Section 4. Classes of Membership Membership in FATE shall be in one of four classes: Regular, Life, Student, and/or Retired.

A. Regular Membership. All qualified persons may become regular members by paying the stipulated dues according to the established schedule, and shall be entitled to all the privileges of FATE membership.

B. Life Membership. All qualified persons may become life members by paying the stipulated dues according to the established schedule, and shall be entitled to all privileges of FATE membership. The dues for life membership shall be twenty (20) times the annual dues for regular membership in lump sum payment or twenty-two (22) times the annual dues for the regular membership if paid in ten (10) annual, consecutive installments.

C. Student Membership. All qualified persons involved as students in undergraduate or graduate teacher education programs may become student members of FATE by paying the stipulated annual dues. Student members shall be entitled to all privileges of FATE membership.

D. Retired Membership. All qualified persons who have retired from full-time active professional employment may elect a retired membership by paying the stipulated dues. They must have held regular membership for at least five years, of which three were consecutive immediately preceding the election of this class of membership. Retired members shall be entitled to all privileges of FATE membership.

Article V

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Florida Association of Teacher Educators provides opportunities for personal and professional growth for association members by conducting membership meetings at the state and regional level, providing leadership roles, facilitating presentations at regional and state conferences, and publishing quality articles that analyze issues and practices related to professional development, or that describe programs designed to prepare quality teachers.

Section 1. Membership Meetings

A. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting shall be held at such date, time and place as may be fixed by the Board, or by an officer of the Corporation authorized by the Board to act for it in such matter and as stated in the notice of the meeting. Special meetings may be called by the President, or, in case of the President's absence, death, or disability, by the President-Elect, by the Secretary, by the Board by action at a meeting, or by a majority of the Board members acting without a meeting.

B. Regional Meetings. A Regional Meeting should be held each year at such date, time and place as determined by the respective Regional Directors in each of the regions. The Regional Meetings shall generally be scheduled on such occasion in the spring deemed appropriate by the Directors. Special meetings may be called by the Directors.

C. Special Meetings. The President, with Board approval, can call a special membership meeting which has a single purpose. A special meeting can also be called by a group of twelve of the members. Notice must be sent to members per Notices of Meetings, Section 1, D. Only business specified in the call for the special membership meeting shall be conducted.

D. Notices of Meetings. Written notice of each Annual Meeting or special meeting stating the date, time and place thereof shall be given by the Secretary or the person or persons calling the meeting by personal mail, email or Corporation website at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be sent to the member at the member's address as the same appears upon the records of the Corporation.

E. Voting. For purposes of any vote, each member in attendance at a scheduled Membership Meeting shall have one (1) vote. A simple majority shall be required to pass any motion made at a Membership Meeting. However, all actions taken must be in compliance with legal statutes, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws.

F. Quorum. At any Membership meeting held in accordance with these Bylaws, the FATE members in attendance shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business to be conducted at such meeting.

Section 2. Leadership Roles

Leadership roles shall include, but not be limited to, a) committee membership, b) committee chair, c) regional director and d) Board member. The Nominations & Elections Committee (Article VIII) shall oversee all aspects of electing and appointing directors and officers as prescribed in Article VI.

Section 3. Conference Presentations

The Conference Planning Committee (Article VIII) shall determine the opportunities for presentations at the Annual Meeting. Regional Directors or appointed committee chairs shall determine the opportunities for presentations at Regional Meetings. Contributors shall not be limited to current members of FATE, however proposed presentations will be judged for approval against the mission of the organization and theme of the meeting.

Section 4. Publishing

Publishing opportunities shall include postings to the Corporate website, articles in the newsletters, and/or articles to be included in the electronic journal. The Communications & Publication Committee (Article VIII) shall oversee all aspects of the communication. Contributors to FATE publications must be a current member unless on special occasions, granted special exemption by the Journal Editor.

Section 5. Other

Other professional development opportunities may be sanctioned and/or sponsored by this organization with approval of the Board.

Article VI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers The Board of Directors shall be the governing body of the FLORIDA ASSOCIATION OF TEACHER EDUCATORS, INC. acting in accordance with the desires of the Corporation as expressed in its general meetings. The Board shall have general charge of the affairs, property and assets of the Corporation. It shall be the duty of the Board to carry out the aims, vision, mission and purposes of the Corporation and, to this end, to manage and control all of its property and assets. All actions taken the Board must be in compliance with legal statutes, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws.

- a. Conducting the process for presenting FATE scholarships and awards
- b. Submitting awards on behalf of FATE to other institutions or organizations

B. Ad-Hoc Committees. The President of the Corporation, at the approval of the Board, may from time to time create a temporary Ad Hoc committee for the purpose of carrying out a specific task.

Section 2. Committee Membership. All members in good standing, as prescribed in Article III shall be eligible for committee membership. The term of committee membership shall be to September 30. Any committee member, by notice in writing to the Board, may resign at any time. Any committee member shall be removed, with cause, at a meeting of the Board by an affirmative vote of the Board members per Article VI, Section 8. A.

Article IX AFFILIATIONS & REGIONS

Section 1. Affiliations. The Florida Association of Teacher Educators, FATE, is a state unit of the Association of Teacher Educators, ATE, and member of the Southeastern Region of the Association of Teacher Educators, SRATE.

A. Establishment of Affiliations. The Corporation may affiliate with organizations and institutions, public and private, with purposes similar to the objectives of the Florida Association of Teacher Educators, upon recommendation of the Board and a majority vote of members present at a regular meeting of members. The affiliation may not cause the Corporation to lose any existing tax-exempt status.

B. Affiliation Delegates. The Board shall designate the delegate or delegates to established activities of such affiliated organizations and institutions. The Board may authorize payment of all or partial expenses of the delegate or delegates to established activities of such affiliated organizations and institutions.

Section 2. Regions. Regional units comprise the state unit, the Florida Association of Teacher Educators, of the Association of Teacher Educators, ATE. The regions established coincide with those established by the Florida Department of Education, which include, but are not limited to, schools districts, state & community colleges, and public and private colleges and universities listed below. Regional Directors, one representing PK-12 and one representing Colleges and Universities, shall be affiliated with their respective region and be members of the Board of Directors as designated in Article VI, Section 2. Designation of institutions within each region are listed in Appendix I.

Article X AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Proposing Amendments to the Bylaws of the Corporation may be proposed in two ways, as follows:

A. The Board or any member of the Corporation may present the proposed amendment at a general meeting of the Corporation with the request that it be voted upon at the next scheduled Membership Meeting. This proposed amendment shall be sent by the Secretary to the membership by U.S. mail or email and posted on the Corporation website at least thirty (30) days prior to a Membership Meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be sent to the member at the member's address as the same appears upon the records of the Corporation.

B. Any member of the Corporation may present the proposed amendment in writing to a meeting of the Board. If the Board approves presentation of the amendment to the FATE membership, it shall present the proposed amendment for vote at the next scheduled Membership Meeting. This proposed amendment shall be sent by the Secretary to the membership by personal mail, email and posted on the Corporation Website at least thirty (30) days prior to the Membership Meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be sent to the member at the member's address as the same appears upon the records of the Corporation.

Section 2. Adoption Upon proper notice the Bylaws may be recommended to be amended, altered, or rescinded by a favorable two-thirds vote of those members of the Corporation present and voting at the Membership Meeting called for that purpose. The Board shall have final authority to adopt or reject the changes in the Bylaws by action of the Board members per Article VI, Section 7 & A. Adopted amendments shall take effect immediately after being filed in a timely manner with the Incorporator. The Secretary of the Corporation shall record the filing date in the official Corporation minutes.

Section 3. Appendices The Appendices shall be amended and approved by the Board without full membership approval. The Appendices shall not amend or supersede the provisions of the Bylaws.

Article XI IDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was an Officer, Director or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as director, trustee, officer, or employee of another corporation (whether non-profit or profit), partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provision of the Articles of Incorporation or under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

Article XII DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATION & DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS

Section 1. Dissolution No part of the net income, revenue, and grants of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, officer, or any private individual (except that the reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered in connection with one or more of its purposes), and no member, officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any part of the assets of the Corporation. In its dissolution or liquidation, the assets and the records for the Corporation, after payment of debts and obligations, shall be transferred to an organization with federal tax exemption for charitable and educational uses and purposes similar to those of the Corporation or to a state or local government, for public purposes. The Exempt organization shall be designated by the final Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Distribution of Assets The affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Board of Directors at any scheduled Board Meeting shall be required to adopt or approve the distribution of the Corporation. The notice of the meeting at which any such action is to be considered shall set forth the subject of the action or actions to be approved.
